Located in the heart of Reading and with specialist localised knowledge of the area, our seasoned experts know what the best is and how to deliver it. Let us help you and your contractors by providing them with their home from home.

CONTRACTOR'S ACCOMMODATION

Being a contractor is the type of job which often requires travelling, working away from home for long periods, and living out of suitcases.

Being away from home, travelling long distances to a site can be exhausting and emotionally tiring, so having a comfortable place to stay with people you know, that's close to the site and at an affordable price is the ideal solution. So let Kings Property of Royal County of Berkshire provide you and your colleagues with a home away from home.

SERVICED ACCOMMODATION

When looking for that short term let for business, pleasure or that something just a little bit special, you should ask yourself this question, do I want only to stay or live?

Whatever your answer know that we can and will provide you with a home for that short or long term stay that you need. We are based in the Royal County of Berkshire and with access to a host of fully serviced apartments and houses we're never more than a telephone call away.

DEVELOPMENT – INVESTMENT – SALES

Kings Property of Royal County of Berkshire (Development and Land Acquisition) has built an excellent reputation for providing paramount professional property development and land acquisition services right from the outset. Established since 2010, we have gained a reputation for our expertise in land acquisition, planning, development and the construction of homes, businesses and versatile spaces. Our work has seen us work with and build close ties with landowners, property development companies, house builders, surveyors and planning departments the breadth of the UK. We have worked on and completed a wide range of projects from single plot builds through to large mixed-use schemes overcoming obstacles and issues ranging from planning problems to ownership issues.

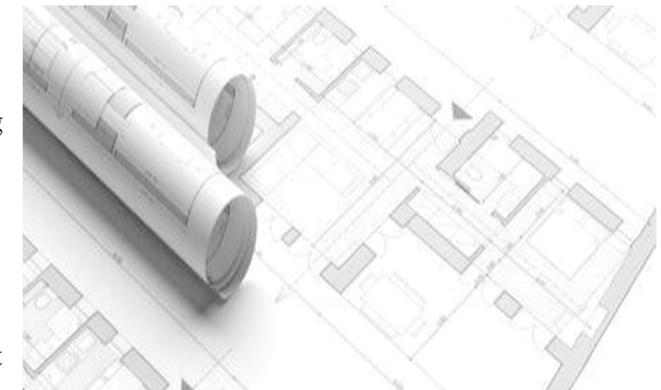

PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT

Kings Property of Royal County of Berkshire are land, residential, mixed-use property developers and a development management and consultancy firm. Developing and selling homes and spaces from the traditional and contemporary right through to innovative, design-led homes for modern living, incorporating the latest in environmental technologies and adhering to the highest quality standards. Building homes and developments for almost ten years and overcoming a varied assortment of challenges have led to us creating beautiful, environmentally friendly successful developments throughout the UK.

LAND ACQUISITION

We are specialists in land acquisition, development management and project management. We have acquired land from single plots to over 100 acres and still need more land for our upcoming developments, both residential, commercial and mixed-use projects.

We are always very keen to hear from landowners, developers and agents who have land or buildings that are suitable for development and we will consider all of the following opportunities: Urban or rural locations, sites with or without planning permission, mixed usage, and commercial premises that are suitable for redevelopment.

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES & CROWDFUNDING

By utilising our expertise and drawing on a wealth of experience in the property sector, we are ideally placed to unlock the value from new and existing developments and land acquisitions to benefit both our investors and partners in all future projects and acquisitions. By harnessing our skills and expertise as both developers and development consultants along with our understanding of property and investment finance, we can source opportunities including crowdfunding and maximise returns on all investments for our customers and partners. So if you are interested or thinking about investing in property, land or development, then don't look any further than Kings Property of Royal County of Berkshire for your property development and land acquisition needs.

ACQUISITION FEES

If you are an agent, consultant, architect, surveyor or someone who has access to land or information that can help us identify a source that leads to development, then get in contact with us and earn a fee or share in the profits of the future development of your introduction.
